STATESBORO, Ga. - The Blue Hose fought hard but was ultimately no match for the Georgia Southern's Men's Tennis team today. The Blue and White took the match against Presbyterian College 4-2 in Clinton, S.C.

The Blue Hose came out strong in doubles and took the point over the Eagles. The Eagles were determined to win though and came back strong in singles. Pascal Wagemaker defeated Jaime Castillo-Lopez, 4-6, 5-2, 6-3 in a close battle. Santiago Suarez took down Oscar Alvarez, 6-1, 6-7, 6-4. Diego Finkelstein dominated Alberto Conde, 6-3, 6-3. Antonio Muniz took his set over Presbyterian College's Max Benson, 7-5, 6-4. The Eagles needed the win today in Clinton and was determined to bring it home.

WHAT HEAD COACH SANDER KONING SAID

"I told the guys today is a test day. Who do we decide to be. Today showed the character of the team. After losing a close battle yesterday, losing the doubles point today, the team fought for every point. It wasn't always pretty, but we really played tough. Santiago had our six today as he often does. Also big shout out to Murphy being down a set and a break and figuring out a way to stay in the match. It was huge for our team."
